

Fencing off steep gullies for bush protection lots while trying to utilize as much better contour ground for grazing calls for some tricky fencing. Darryn does this in a truly professional manner. When the job is finished I never have to worry about popped angles, slack wires or any other issues. It will be a fence that is built to last.

I have no hesitation in recommending Ground Up Fencing Services Ltd for any fencing project.

Bill Flowerday, Orchardist and Beef farmer.